The MARYLAND GAZETTE.

[XIXth Year.] THURSDAY, September 1, 1763. [N°. 956.]

Mr. GREEN,

AS Humanity [illegible] only Inducement [illegible] to aſk the Favour, [illegible] Motive, I am ſatiſ[illegible] readily influence you [illegible] the following Extracts a Place in your Paper.

The celebrated Dr. Boerhaave obſerves, "That ſince the Infancy of the "healing Art, all Phyſicians have complained of "the Want of a certain Preſervative againſt the "Hydrophobia or Canine Madneſs, and aſſerted "that none have recovered after they were ſeized "with a Dread of Water." On this he remarks, "It is to be lamented, that after the common Me-"thods have been put in Practice perpetually "without Succeſs for ſo many Ages, others have "not been tried different from theſe which ſo "long Experience has convinced us were ineffec-"tual."

"The Prevention and Cure of this Diſorder, "continues he, if we except a few Inſtances, are "highly dubious and uncertain; the Reaſons of "this Want of Succeſs ſeems to be, a boaſting "Pretence to many Specifics, and a Neglect of a "due Method of Cure founded on the Hiſtory of "the Diſorder; hitherto there is no Account of "any effectual Remedy for the Cure of this miſe-"rable Diſtemper, tho' many are highly extolled, "but they all owe their Reputation, either to "barren Speculation, or a too great Confidence "in the Report of others."

Then this Great Man enumerates the ſeveral and approved Methods in Uſe, and declares them all ineffectual. "But we ought not (ſays he) as "there are other Specifics for other Poiſons, to "deſpair of finding a particular Antidote to this."

The excellent Dr. Robert James of London, encouraged from this Hint, determined to make a Trial, what Mercurial Medicines might be able to effect in this dreadful Malady; he began his Experiments on Mad Dogs, the ſurprizing good Succeſs attending this purſuit, he ſoon after communicated in a Memorial to Sir Hans Sloane, then Preſident of the Royal Society; on further Trials, ſtill attended with the ſame happy Succeſs, he again publiſhed his Experiments on other Mad Animals, which equally ſucceeded in the Prevention and Cure. The Doctor then informed the Public, That the Medicine he had made Uſe of, was the Turpeth Mineral.

Some Time after the Experiments were made public by Sir Hans in the Philoſophical Tranſactions, Dr. Deſault's Diſſertation on the Hydrophobia fell into the Hands of Dr. James; from this he had the Satiſfaction to learn, as he expreſſes himſelf, "That Mercurial Unctions were effectual "in preventing and even curing this terrible Spe-"cies of Madneſs," and from thence he concludes, "That Mercury, however diſguiſed or prepared, "would always have the ſame ſalutary Effects."

The Method propoſed by Deſault, and his Inſtances brought in Support of the Succeſs, are really ſo juſtly ſtriking, that I could wiſh them a Place in your Paper, and more eſpecially at this Time, when ſeveral late deplorable Examples of this dreaded Malady are ſtill recent, and more ſtill to be apprehended.

The Benevolent Dr. James concludes his Obſervations on the ſeveral Methods of Cure, and more particularly on a red Powder brought from Tonquin in the Eaſt-Indies, and adminiſtered both there and in England with ſurprizing good Succeſs; upon Examination, thoſe Powders proved to be native and factitious Cinnabar, and it is well known that Cinnabar is made of about three Parts of Mercury to one of Sulphur, ſo that this ſeems very ſtrongly to prove the great Efficacy of Mercury in this Diſtemper.

The Receipt, as follows:

Take of native and factitious Cinnabar, of each 24 Grains, Muſk 16 Grains, powdered and mixed well together.

It remains that I now give the preciſe Method, ſays Dr. James, which I would make Uſe of, if I ſhould be called to a Perſon bitten by a Mad Dog.

"Firſt, I would rub into the Place wounded, "as ſoon as poſſible, a Drachm of Mercurial "Ointment, made of 3 Parts of Hog's Lard to one "of Mercury, recommended by Deſault. I would "then give Turpeth Mineral, by Way of Vomit, "in a Doſe proportioned to the Age and Con-"ſtitution of the Patient, and this I would repeat "more than once at Intervals, which would ſe-"cure it from raiſing a Salivation, always remem-"bering to rub the Wound once a Day or oftener, "with the Mercurial Ointment; neither ſhould I "omit to direct Cinnabar and Muſk, in the Man-"ner directed above. Then (I apprehend the Doctor means as ſoon as it can be done with Security after uſing the Mercurial Medicines) "let the "Patient go into cold Water every Morning for a "Month, but when, thro' Neglect, any Symptoms "of approaching Madneſs ſhould appear, I would "increaſe the Quantity of Mercurial Ointment, "and give Mercury in ſome Form or other inter-"nally in as large Doſes, and thoſe as often "repeated, as could be done without hazarding a "Salivation too precipitate. In both Caſes I "would recommend the Cold Bath, as a Thing "of great Conſequence, as ſoon as ever the Pati-"ent can make Uſe of it without Danger [illegible] "in this Caſe, as in all others, many accidental "Circumſtances will occur, for which it is im-"poſſible to lay down univerſal Rules; it muſt "therefore be left to the Prudence of a Phyſician, "to guard againſt and remedy Inconveniencies "ariſing from particular Accidents."

I cannot forbear hinting in this Place, altho' I own I have had no Experience to warrant it, but from conſidering the Hiſtory and Nature of this Malady, as delivered by Boerhaave, That it is very probable, the preſent applauded Mercurial and antiphlogiſtic Method now ſo ſucceſsfully made Uſe of in the SMALL-POX, would be attended with the like ſalutary Effects in this moſt fatal Diſorder. I am, SIR,

Your moſt humble Servant,

J. SPRIGG.

LONDON, May 28.

IN the Warſaw Gazette, of the 13[illegible] is the following Relation: "One Margaret Kra[illegible] died lately in the Village of Konina, aged 108, being born February 22, 1655. At the Age of 94 ſhe married for her third Huſband Gaſpard Raykou, of the Village of Ciwouſzin, then aged 105. During the 14 Years which they lived together they had two Boys and one Girl, and, what is very remarkable, theſe three Children bear evident Marks of the old Age of their Father and Mother. Their Hair is already grey, and they have a Vacuity in their Gums, like that which appears after the Loſs of Teeth, though they never had any Teeth. They have not Strength enough to live on ſolid Food, but live on Bread and Vegetables. They are of a proper Size for their Ages, but their Backs are bent, their Complexions are ſallow, and they have all the other Symptoms of Decrepitude. Their Father is ſtill alive. Theſe Particulars are certified by the Pariſh Regiſters. The Village of Ciwouſzin is in the Diſtrict of Stenzick, in the Palatinate of Sendomir."

June 4. We hear the King of Portugal hath ſettled an Annuity of 2000 Moidores a Month on the Count de Lippe, for his eminent Services to that Kingdom during the War.

Letters from Berlin adviſe that the Miniſtry are almoſt wholly taken up in ſettling Plans of Oeconomy, to enable the King to keep always on Foot a large Army; and that the raiſing of Recruits to complete the Companies will not, for the future, be left to the Captains; but that the Recruits will be furniſhed by the King.

Private Letters from Germany by the laſt Mail inform us, that the Elector of Mentz's Death was hourly expected; and the Letters from Turin remark, that the King of Sardinia was ſtill bad; but that his Phyſicians hoped he would get the better of his Diſorder.

Letters by Yeſterday's French Mail bring Advice, that a large Ship from Domingo to Bourdeaux, almoſt loaded with Indigo, and ſaid to be worth 700,000 Livres, is entirely loſt. It is ſaid ſhe had on board 150,000 lb. of Indigo.

They write from Hanover, that they had received an Account of the Hereditary Prince of Brunſwick's Arrival at Aix-la-Chapelle on the 29th; and theſe Letters ſay, that after making Uſe of the Waters of that Place his Serene Highneſs would return to Brunſwick, his Voyage to England being put off till September.

June 6. It is ſaid a Lady of Quality was dreſſed at the Duke of Richmond's Maſquerade, in ſuch a Manner, that which ever Way ſhe turned or moved, ſhe repreſented a Houſe at the Corner of a Street. [She might have ſtuck up an Advertiſement too, TO BE LET - - - - - - - -]

Moſt of the Nobility, who were at Court on Saturday, were dreſſed in Engliſh Manufactures, as were alſo their Majeſties, and all the Royal Family.

The Illuminations and Fire-Works at the Manſion-Houſe were very grand. The ſix Pillars which ſupport the Portico were illuminated with upwards of 4000 Lamps. The Whole was conducted with the greateſt Order, and though a vaſt Concourſe of People aſſembled, we hear of no Miſchief being done.

Saturday Evening laſt, immediately after the Exhibition of the Fire-Works on Tower-Hill was over, the People crowding in great Multitudes thro' Poſtern-Row, to get home, the Rails, by the extraordinary Preſſure, gave Way, and ſeveral Perſons were puſhed down into the Place where the Water runs. Thirteen were taken up dead (beſides ſeveral much bruiſed) ſeven of whom were carried to their reſpective Homes, and ſix lay Yeſterday at Noon in the Watch-Houſe, in Order to be owned. Among the Number killed were two Women big with Child.

Some Gentlemen of Billingſgate and Bridge Wards, illuminated the Monument at their own Expence. The following Motto appeared in tranſparent Capitals round the Iron Rails, DIGNITY TO THE CROWN; LIBERTY TO THE SUBJECT. The Gentlemen ſpent the Evening at the Swan Tavern with many loyal Toaſts.

A noble Lord in this City advertiſed for a Taylor that would undertake to make a Suit of Cloaths out of Two and a Quarter Yards of Broad Cloth, for which a handſome Premium was offer'd; the Advertiſement paſs'd unnoticed for a conſiderable Time, and at Length a Journeyman Taylor preſented himſelf to his Lordſhip, with a Recommendation of being an honeſt faithful Workman, and deſired to undertake the Taſk, upon which his Lordſhip furniſhed the Cloth; and in a few Days the Taylor preſented the Coat, compleatly finiſhed, which fitted his Lordſhip extremely well; he then cut the Waiſtcoat out of the Coat and preſented that, which alſo fitted; and then cut the Breeches out of the Waiſtcoat and preſented them, which likewiſe fitted; his Lordſhip then aſked for his Coat and Waiſtcoat; upon which the Taylor delivered the Fragments of the Coat and Waiſtcoat, ſaid that he had made the Suit according to Agreement, and preſented his Bill for Payment, which his Lordſhip diſcharged without the leaſt Heſitation, to the no ſmall Satiſfaction of the Taylor, and Diverſion of a Number of Gentlemen who were preſent on the Occaſion. [Quere. Which of the Two deſerv'd moſt to be Laugh'd at, His Lordſhip or His Taylorſhip?]

BOSTON, Auguſt 12.

We hear from Marblehead, that on Wedneſday, the 3d Inſtant, the Houſe of the Rev. Mr. Barnard was ſtruck with Lightning: It came down the Side of the Chimney, tearing ſome of the Shingles off the Roof, and ran into the lower Room, ripped up the Wainſcotting near the Fire-place, where was a Sconce Glaſs, and ſeveral Braſs Knobs, which very evidently diverted the Courſe of the Lightning; it proceeded to a Cloſet, and broke ſome China Ware therein, then went out of the Houſe, juſt ripping up the upper Part of the Cellar Door. A Bowl which ſtood in the Cloſet had a Hole through, the Bigneſs of a Knitting-needle, occaſioned by the Lightning. At the ſame Time a Cooper's Shop was ſtruck in the ſame Town, the Chimney was beat in cloſe to the Roof; providentially the Workmen juſt before went out of the Shop, whereby they eſcaped being hurt.

A more melancholy Effect of the Lightning the ſame Day was at Reading Precinct: One Mr. Frye of that Place, being in the Room with his Wife, who was ſtanding near the Fire-Place, the Lightning came down the Chimney, which drove the Aſhes in ſuch a Manner that it filled the Room. Mr. Frye with Difficulty got to the Hearth, and pulled his Wife out, but found that ſhe was inſtantly killed.

A few Days ago the Houſe of the Rev. Mr. Weld, of Attleborough, was ſtruck with Lightning; the Fire, reſembling a large Ball, came down the Chimney into the lower Room, and made a conſiderable Exploſion: There were a Number of Perſons in ſeveral Parts of the Houſe, a young Woman, who was in the lower Room, went up to ſee if any Damage had accrued, but found none, excepting a Quantity of Tow, which lay ſpread on the upper Chamber Floor, being in Blaze, ſhe taking a Blanket, threw it over the Fire, and extinguiſhed it, and thereby preſerved the Houſe from burning.

NEW-YORK, Auguſt 22.

GOSHEN, (about 70 or 80 Miles from New-York) Auguſt 5.

Laſt Week the following Accident happened in this Place. Several Men having been out upon the Hills, hunting for Deer, in their Return met with a Flock of Partridges, at which 4 Guns were diſcharged, three of them pretty quick after each other; this being an uncommon Accident in the Place, was miſtaken by ſome of the Inhabitants of the Wall Kill, for the Firing of Indians. Immediately Alarm Guns were fired, and ſpread over the whole Place, which produced an amazing Panic and Confuſion among the People, near 500 Families; ſome for Haſte cut the Harneſs of their Horſes from their Plows and Carts, and rode off with what they were moſt concerned to preſerve. Some who had no Veſſels to croſs the River, plunged thro', carrying their Wives and Children on their Backs; ſome, we have already heard, proceeded as far as New-England, ſpreading the Alarm as they went, and how far they may go is uncertain.

The Men who were the innocent Cauſe of the Alarm, informed as many as they could meet with of the Truth of the Caſe; but they were far from being able to quiet the Diſturbance they had raiſed. Hence it is hoped People will be Cautioned, not to be frighted before they are certain of Danger.

About ſix o'Clock laſt Wedneſday Evening, in a Squall, one of Mr. Watſon's Ferry Boats overſet, near Robin's Reef, about three Miles from Staten Iſland; ſhe immediately ſunk down, and every Perſon on board (being [illegible] in Number) but the Ferry Man, who ſwam to the Shore, were drowned. Their Names are, Mr. Robert Kennedy, a Scotch Gentleman, and Mr. De Lage, both lately from [illegible]; [illegible]

James Anderſon, a Scotch Gentleman alſo, lately from Madeira; Mr. David Oatmeal, and one Mr. Morriſon, (both Scotch Gentlemen likewiſe, the former having reſided here many Years, but the latter only a few Months) Mr. Chapman, a young Gentleman from Philadelphia, who but a few Months ſince inherited an Eſtate of £. 20,000; Mrs. Henderſon, and Mrs. Reynolds, Wife of Capt. Reynolds now at Sea; And a Negro Boy belonging to Mr. De Loge. None of the Bodies of the above-mentioned unfortunate Perſons are yet found, tho' a ſharp Look Out has been for ſome Days paſt kept in the Bay for that Purpoſe; and 'tis ſomething remarkable, that tho' there were many Boats in the Bay at the Time the Squall came up, not one of them received the leaſt Damage, tho' ſeveral of them were to Windward of Mr. Watſon's Boat when ſhe overſet.

PHILADELPHIA, AUGUST 25.

Extract of a Letter from Lancaſter, Auguſt 23.

"Juſt as I had cloſed my Letter to you, John Hart, an Indian Trader, arrived here from Pittſburgh, and brings the following Account, which you may depend upon; That on the 5th and 6th Colonel Bouquet was attacked by the Indians, and loſt and had wounded 110 Men: On the 8th he arrived at Pittſburgh. The Officers killed are Captain Graham, and Lieutenant Campbell; Lieutenant Dow wounded. Mr. Hart declares, the Indians never had ſo ſevere a Drubbing ſince they knew the Uſe of Powder, &c. 20 of their Great Warriors were found dead, beſides a great Number wounded, and dragged away by their Fellows."

Another Letter, from the ſame Place, mentions "Colonel Bouquet's getting to Pittſburgh, with all his Proviſions; and that he had been able to carry all the Wounded with him to the Fort."

And a Third, "That the Hearing of the Colonel's Arrival at Pittſburgh, was as agreeable News to them, as any they had heard the laſt War."

Mr. Hart left Pittſburgh the Fifteenth Inſtant.

Extract of a Letter from Niagara, July 25, 1763.

"Since my laſt, a Man of the New-Jerſey Provincials, belonging to this Garriſon, was ſcalped within a Mile and a Half of the Fort, as he was going Expreſs to Fort Schloſſer, a Place about 18 Miles from hence, and where they embark, after having croſſed the Portage. Two Sailors, belonging to Commodore Loring, have alſo ſhared the ſame Fate, at the Mouth of Lake Erie, where they had gone to embark for Detroit."

In a Letter from Carliſle, dated the 13th Inſtant, it is ſaid, that ſome Indians (ſingle) have been lately ſeen in Shearman's Valley; and that on the 12th the Tracks of a Party were found there, ſuppoſed to conſiſt of eight or ten, coming through Shearman's Valley, towards Carliſle, about twelve Miles upwards.

In another Letter from the ſame Place, of Auguſt 17, mention is made, that one John Martin, in the Great Cove, ſeeing an Indian coming up to a Houſe where he was, fired at him; upon which the Indian raiſed a Yell, and took to a Tree: That Martin imagining there might be more Indians near him, ran to a Company at Work, and told what had happened, when they went to the Place, and found ſome Blood and Excrements; from which they concluded he was ſhot through the Bowels. They followed his Track down to a Bottom, where they ſaw the Tracks of ſix or ſeven more; but being a ſmall Party, purſued no further. In the ſame Letter it is alſo ſaid, that a young Man, at a Plantation about nine Miles from Carliſle, near the Foot of the Mountain, ſaw an Indian, and fired at him, at about 50 Yards Diſtance, but was not ſure that he hit him; the Indian took to a Tree, and the Lad went back a little Way, in order to load again, but on his Return could not find the Indian. He then alarmed the Neighbourhood; and the Soldiers being all out in Parties, covering the People gathering in their Grain, upwards of Twenty young Men turned out immediately from Carliſle, to ſcour the Woods.

From Berks County we have Advice, that on the 16th Inſtant, they had Intelligence at Captain Kern's Poſt, on the North Branch of Schuylkill, above the Blue Mountain, of ſome Indians being ſeen about eight Miles from thence; on which a Party was ſent out, who found their Tracks, but could not come up with them: That the ſame Day they received further Intelligence that the Enemy were about a Mile off, when a Party purſued, came up with, fired on them, and wounded one Indian, who was ſeen to fall three times; but there happening to be a ſevere Guſt, they eſcaped: That ſoon after the Indians came within 80 Perches of the Guard, and carried off ſome Horſes: And that a reconnoitring Party was fired on by them from a Swamp, when our Men immediately ruſhed into it, but the Pines and Laurels were ſo thick, that they could not find them.

Extract of a Letter from Fort Cumberland, dated Auguſt 9.

"I have juſt received Advice by Expreſs, that this Day the Savages killed one Captain Staunton, and another Man, of the Virginia Militia, and wounded three others dangerouſly, at a Fort above Pearſall's, on the South Branch, but ſcalped none. There were eleven Men in the Fort; the Party of Indians was between Thirty and Forty, three of whom are thought to be killed. Colonel Stephens will be here To-morrow with 140 or 50 Men. As he has the Command of the Militia of ſeveral Counties, he has promiſed to aſſiſt all in his Power, by protecting Bedford and this Garriſon."

By a Perſon from Fort Auguſta, we learn that our People were all well there, about fourteen Days ago; but that the Indians, who uſed to live on the Big Iſland, on the Weſt Branch of Suſquehannah, were all gone off, excepting one old Man, and his two Sons, and are ſuppoſed to have joined the other Indians in the War againſt us.

ANNAPOLIS, September 1.

About a Month or Five Weeks ago, the Wife of John M'Koy, a poor Man in Charles County, near Pomfret, was Delivered of Four Children, Three Boys alive, and One Girl dead; the leaſt of which was Eighteen Inches long; but they all died within a Day after their Birth. It is ſaid ſhe was not come to her full Time; but met with ſome Accident, which brought on a premature Birth.

Laſt Night, between IX and XI o'Clock, we had an Appearance of the Aurora Borealis.
